Palmetto Dunes Offers the Ultimate Year-Round Biking Experience on Miles of Serene Paved Pathways and Wide Sandy Beaches

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. – Palmetto Dunes Oceanfront Resort on Hilton Head Island is truly a paradise for biking.

With miles of paved pathways, this world-class resort offers some of the nation’s finest recreational biking opportunities. Visitors can wind beneath a dense canopy of live oaks and ride along three miles of wide, flat beaches. Guests can enjoy a temperate climate and lush evergreen environment year-round, making this full-service resort a popular destination for families, couples, golfers, tennis players, weddings, corporate retreats and more.

“Many guests come to Palmetto Dunes, year after year, because of our incredible pathways and bike-friendly design,” said Bret Martin, vice president of operations at Palmetto Dunes Oceanfront Resort. “All year long, our guests can explore miles of beaches and bike over to Shelter Cove Harbour for lunch and to shop at world-class boutiques. The entire island is easily accessible by bike from our resort, making it possible to enjoy everything that Hilton Head has to offer. Plus, there’s nothing more relaxing than riding along our beaches at low tide.”

The network of bike trails at Palmetto Dunes conveniently connects up with nearly 50 miles of public pathways and nature trails blazed by the Town of Hilton Head Island. Recreational cyclists enjoy easy access to a diverse array of shopping centers, dining destinations and activities along the pathways network, minimizing the need for a car while staying at Palmetto Dunes.

Hilton Head Island’s public pathways run alongside many major arteries, from the William Hilton Parkway to Beach City Road, and feature a central loop connecting to various parks, beaches and other destinations around the island. Since the pathway system was first implemented, the paved trails have proved to be popular among visitors as well as residents.

Palmetto Dunes Outfitters, the resort’s one-stop shop for outdoor adventures, boasts more than 3,000 bikes for rent, from children’s to adult bicycles. Also available are tag-a-longs, kiddie carts, bikes equipped with baby seats, adult three-wheelers and tandem bikes. Bikes, helmets and other accessories are available for daily, weekly or monthly rental. Palmetto Dunes Outfitters delivers bikes for free for guests staying at the resort – or anywhere on the island – making bike rentals easy and convenient.

“Our bikes are the perfect way to enjoy a relaxing ride on the beach or to explore miles of paved bike trails around beautiful Hilton Head Island,” said Frank Gaston, general manager of Palmetto Dunes Outfitters. “Biking is a great activity for families and couples. Anyone can do it. Plus, our free delivery service is an added benefit for guests staying anywhere on the island.”
