Shelter Cove Harbour and Marina Offers the Best of Hilton Head Island in a Magnificent Waterfront Setting

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. – Shelter Cove Harbour at Palmetto Dunes Oceanfront Resort serves as a spectacular waterfront shopping, dining and entertainment destination, conveniently located in the heart of Hilton Head Island. Residents and visitors alike enjoy the picturesque splendor of this Mediterranean-style jewel overlooking the harbor.

Shopping and Dining

Located directly across Hwy. 278 from Palmetto Dunes Oceanfront Resort, Shelter Cove Harbour offers a stunning collection of quaint shops, art galleries, restaurants and boutiques. Guests can find something for everyone on their shopping list at this waterfront shopping paradise, all year-round. Plus, visitors can enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner at some of the area's best restaurants, many of which offer indoor and outdoor seating.

HarbourFest

Shelter Cove Harbour features plenty of activity all year-round. One of Shelter Cove's most popular summer events, HarbourFest, will celebrate its 22nd anniversary in 2010. This festive summer-long event runs from Memorial Day through Labor Day and includes live entertainment, food, arts and crafts and a flurry of activity. On select Tuesday evenings, HarbourFest activities conclude with a spectacular fireworks display over the water. For a unique perspective, Outside Hilton Head offers "Fireworks Paddle" guided kayak tours during the summer. In addition, the traditional Fourth of July fireworks show at Shelter Cove Harbour is a distinctive crowd-pleaser, offering one of the region's most breathtaking fireworks displays.

Shannon Tanner

Troubadour Shannon Tanner, a part of HarbourFest for more than two decades, is an audience favorite and has been delighting generations of families on Hilton Head Island, year after year. Tanner blends the sounds of popular music with his own original ballads and children's favorites. One of the Lowcountry's most beloved musical artists, Tanner thrills fans of all ages with his fun-loving performances.

Shelter Cove Marina

For the boating enthusiast, the marina at Shelter Cove Harbour offers the perfect waterfront destination. Shelter Cove Marina is the largest deepwater cove on the island and serves as a popular port of call for boats and yachts traveling the Intracoastal Waterway. A ship store and full marina services are available on-site. In addition, Shelter Cove Marina is home to a full variety of charters, nature cruises, dolphin tours, sport crabbing and fishing. Charter boats depart daily for inshore or offshore fishing, while ships set out for a dolphin encounters and nature experiences off the South Carolina coast. Kayakers on guided nature tours paddle out of the harbor to visit tidal marshes where birds, crabs and other island creatures make their home.

King Neptune Statue and Sundial

Look for artist Wayne Edward's towering sculpture of King Neptune at the center of Shelter Cove. The world's largest figurative sundial, the sundial features Neptune's trident spear as the time indicator. With a little practice, guests can learn how to tell the time and how to adjust for the correct time any month of the year.
